4) Below is an overview of the WALY-Warmth Program:

WALY-Warmth

This is the 31st consecutive year for WALY-Warmth, a program that buys warm winter clothing for underprivileged children in Blair County. Each December we take these children on a shopping trip for their new clothes. WALY-Warmth is a 501(c) (3) organization with trustees who oversee the use of the funds, which come entirely from donations. All donations are tax deductible. All time is donated. Over 30 years, WALY-Warmth has taken thousands of children in need shopping for new clothing, and for some of them it’s the only Christmas they’ll have. We’ve seen children show up with no coats, hats, mittens; once a tiny little girl showed up in sandals with thin summer socks with holes in the toes, on a cold December morning. Life is always difficult for underprivileged children and our help is always needed. For families that are struggling, a successful WALY-Warmth campaign means that their children will not go without the essential that might otherwise be considered a luxury. Children are the only focus of the Charitable Bequest.

In 1997, WALY-Warmth was awarded the Blair County Chamber of Commerce Committee’s Choice Award of Distinction.

To be eligible for WALY-Warmth, children must be between four (4) and fifteen (15) years of age and live in Blair County, PA, and all are screened for need by an impartial representative of “Living Well Behavioral Health,” a division of Blair County Human Services (“Agency”). Said representative sends queries to other local agencies and schools, requesting applications for the program. Other referrals (i.e., church groups) might also be accepted for consideration. The number of recipients is determined by the amount of money received in annual donations. In their sole and final discretion, the Agency impartially selects approximately between 150 to 200 individual/families/household units who are thereby verified and pre-screened. Every recipient must be accompanied by a parent/guardian and be present at our shopping trip, beginning at 8 a.m. on Sunday December 1, 2019. Each recipient will shop for and receive apparel paid for us with a maximum dollar amount to be determined. If funds permit, we also will shop for non-present pre-selected children in the “Toasty Toddler” program who are under four (4) years of age.

From December 13, 2020 through January 10, 2021, corporate sponsors, businesses, and individuals at large who donated to the program are thanked on the air. Donations can be mailed or hand delivered to: WALY-Warmth, C/O One Forever Drive, Hollidaysburg, Pa. 16648.
